This agreement is in effect for one year from the date listed herein. Should I or my daughter/son fail to complete this instruction within this one-year time period, all monies paid are forfeited and no refunds will be given for any reason. Every and all reasonable effort shall be taken on the part of LADS to ensure all instruction will be offered during this one-year time limit. Average completion time for students is less than six months. LADS is not responsible for student obtaining a Beginners Permit or Driver's License within the one year time frame and is not responsible for extension of the contract or any refunds due to lack of obtaining Permit / Driver's License. All instruction will take place in the Berkeley / Charleston / Dorchester County area and behind-the-wheel instruction will be offered as scheduling allows. I further understand and agree to the terms, rules, and conditions as outlined on all pages this agreement.

Vehicles used for behind-the-wheel training are state-certified and equipped with an automatic transmission, instructor brake pedal, and video camera.

Students are under the Driving School's supervision during any scheduled instruction and lessons may be ended early should the instructor feel there is non-cooperation or that the student presents any impairment that may cause a safety issue (sleepiness, medication, etc.). Cancellation fees may be assessed due to rescheduling under this section.
5. Students will only be picked up / dropped off from school, work or home unless other arrangements are made at least 24 business hours prior to the lesson. Arrangements must be made by the parent / guardian for all minor students.
